

Algebra Crosswords

Across

- 2. A number that can be made by dividing two integers
4. Small number written with another big number that tells how many times to multiply the big number by itself
9. A letter that stands in place of a missing number in an equation
11. Sequence that deals with multiplication and division
12. Two terms

13. Input value that produces an output

14. Number w/o a variable that stands on its own

15. Number that is paired with a variable

Down

1. A number that can't be expressed as a ratio between two integers
3. The relation between two expressions that aren't equal
5. Expression of more than 2 algebraic terms

6. Sequence which deals with addition and subtraction

7. Change in the form of a measurement

8. The steepness of a line

10. The process of finding factors