

Name: _____

Date: _____

Algebra knowledge

Across

4. a polynomial with three terms
 6. the line that cuts a quadratic graph in half is the axis of _____
 10. a graph that looks like a "U"
 13. Rise/run
 15. when a term is multiplied by itself, the answer is called a _____
 16. the process of multiplying to everything inside a parentheses
 17. opposite/hypotenuse

18. numbers like 4,9,16 are called _____ squares
 19. the center point on a graph
 20. writing a polynomial as a product

Down

1. a multiplier of a variable
 2. another name of a point on a graph
 3. in an exponential equation, a base greater than 1
 5. a formula that helps us find sides of a right triangle is the _____ theorem

7. an expression with the highest power of 2
 8. finding the value of a variable
 9. _____ lines that have the same slope
 11. another name for an x-intercept
 12. a maximum or minimum point
 14. when multiplying monomials, you _____ exponents