

Name: _____

Date: _____

Alzheimer's Disease

Across

3. What's a main symptom of Alzheimer's
4. 1st stage of AD
8. 3rd stage of AD
10. In this stage the person might have trouble finding the right words
11. AD patients are not oriented to
12. 2nd stage of AD
13. AD patients are not oriented to
15. A CNA need to be _____ with a Alzheimer's patient
16. Most common age Alzheimer's is seen in
17. AD patient tends to do what with objects
19. The stage is when a person might have a little memory loss
20. _____ cells are lost in the brain

21. Youngest age to develop AD
24. During this stage patient is going to need constant supervision
25. Protein pieces that build up in spaces between nerve cells
26. _____ is increased agitation and confusion at night or late afternoon hours
27. During this stage a person might have problems with short term memory
29. Twisted protein fibers that build up inside cells

Down

1. _____ cells are lost in the brain
2. The meaning of AD
5. AD is a form of what?
6. Main symptom of AD
7. What does Alzheimer's change in a person

9. This stage is when Alzheimer's disease isn't showing and there's no symptoms
14. In stage 5 a person affected with AD is going to need help with _____ tasks
18. AD patients are not oriented to what
22. AD is common in what gender
23. What is a common behavior in AD patients
28. During this stage patient has lost the ability to recognize surroundings and communication