

Amber Medieval crossword

Across

- 3. A symbol used by knights on their shield, banner, and armor. It helped to distinguish one knight from another
- 8. Germanic tribes who settled in the land that is today France
- 11. The center of life during the middle ages; the manor was the local lord's house or castle
- 12. A large tower within a castle that was considered the last line of defense
- 15. The highest position in a guild; a master could own a shop and hire journeymen and apprentices
- 17. Someone who pledges their allegiance to a lord
- 18. A young boy that acts as a servant for a knight while training to become a knight someday

- 19. A defensive fortification where a lord or king would live. The local people would flee to the castle if they were attacked

20. A religious area or a group of buildings where monks lived. They were isolated from the rest of the world so the monks could focus on worshipping God; also called an Abby.

Down

- 1. An area of land given to a lord or baron by a king to rule
- 2. A leader in the church; how was often the top church leader in a kingdom
- 4. The wars where the Christian nations took back control of the Iberian Peninsula (Spain and Portugal) from the Muslim Moors.
- 5. A document forced upon King John of England by his barons. It said that the king was not above the law and that the people had the right to a fair trial

6. A deadly disease that spread through much of Europe during the middle ages. It is estimated that it killed at least one third of all the people in Europe.

7. A boy who worked for a guild master in order to learn a trade or craft

9. A ditch around a castle filled with water

10. The top ruler in a monarchy

13. The code by which knights pledged to live. It involved honor, being courageous, and protecting the weak

14. Religious wars between the Christians and Muslims for the Holy Land, especially Jerusalem

16. A peasant who worked the land for the local lord. The serf had few rights and was little better than a slave.