

America Comes of Age

Across

- 2. political, military, and economic domination of strong nations over weaker territories
- 5. nontraditional combat methods
- 7. process that allows citizens to approve or reject a law passed by a legislature
- 10. belief that assimilating immigrants into American society would make them more loyal citizens
- 12. President Roosevelt's program of reforms to keep the wealthy and powerful from taking advantage of small business owners and the poor
- 13. movement that responded to the pressures of industrialism and urbanization by promoting reforms

- 14. 1906; law that gave Interstate Commerce Commission the authority to set maximum shipping rates for railroads and for ferries, toll bridges, and oil pipelines
- 15. the belief held by some that certain nations and races were superior to others and therefore destined to rule over them
- 17. the right to vote
- 18. where the colonizing country removed raw materials and shipped them back home to benefit its own economy
- 19. worked for women's rights; cause of woman suffrage
- 20. newspapers that used sensational headlines and exaggerated stories on order to promote readership

Down

- 1. Woodrow Wilson's program to place government controls on corporations in order to benefit small businesses

- 3. writer who uncovers and exposes misconduct in government or business
- 4. a movement aimed at stopping alcohol abuse and the problems created by it
- 6. an American statement that the government did not want colonies in China, but favored free trade there
- 8. law establishing a civil government in Puerto Rico
- 9. group of African American thinkers that pushed for immediate racial reforms in education, voting practices, etc
- 11. aggressive nationalism; support for warlike foreign policy
- 16. network of churches and clubs that set up employment agencies and relief efforts to help African Americans get settled and find work in cities