

Name: _____

Date: _____

America gains power

Across

3. An infectious disease caused by mosquito bites.
 5. The policy of focusing on ones own country instead of worrying about other countries.
 10. A non-fiction literary piece of writing that forms part of a publication.
 12. A cigar shaped, self-propelling, underwater rocket.
 14. An article that expresses the opinion of the author.
 16. A title or a caption of a newspaper or magazine.
 17. Government ruled by a king or queen.
 19. An explosion devise usually placed in a concealed location.

21. The process of incorporating a territory into a existing country or state.
 22. The last monarch of Hawaii who was forced to sign "the bayonet constitution."
 23. The president who began imperialism movement.
 24. U.S admiral who defeated the Spanish fleet at Manila Bay.
 25. U.S assistant secretary, leader of the rough riders.

Down

1. Comics based on something political to express opinions.
 2. Who the article is by is called the...
 4. U.s cavalry organized by Teddy Roosevelt.
 6. A surprise attack, then a retreat.

7. The U.s president that opposed the annexation of Hawaii.
 8. President McKinley adviser, and a military admiral.
 9. The treaty between U.S and Spain that ended the war.
 11. Pineapple mogul who was elected president of Hawaii.
 13. The title of a newspaper, underneath which is usually a tagline.
 15. The expansion of one country by colonizing smaller countries.
 18. A disease caused by the bite from a female mosquito. It causes chills, fever, and sweating.
 20. journalism that exaggerates the news is called _____ journalism.