

American Government

Across

2. the body of persons entitled to vote in an election
 5. an organization which seeks to achieve goals common to its members
 6. a political party with little electoral strength
 8. also called primary election
 12. majority of opinion
 13. a political system consisting of two major parties
 14. concern for local or regional interests instead of the interests of the whole

16. a system in which one political party has the right to form the government
 18. supporter of a party, group, ect.
 19. a alliance between persons, factions, states, etc.
 20. a electoral district with just a single elected representative

Down

1. a political party that has a close relationship with the executive branch
 3. representing or including members from two parties
 4. a diversity of different ideas or people

7. a group of people forming a minority within a larger body
 9. a meeting of party leaders to select candidates, elect convention delegates, etc.
 10. holding an indicated position, role, office, etc.
 11. several political parties
 15. a political party with enough electoral strength to periodically gain control of the government or to effectively oppose the party in power
 17. the excess of votes received by the leading candidate