

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Amphibian Types

Across

- 5. in the family of a salamander, live in forest and hilly, mountains regions, bright orange bellies with a dark blue, spotted back
- 9. Bright red, when treated it puffs up, has toxin that causes humans and allergic reaction, found in Madagascar
- 11. Bright Colored Frog with spots, Walk and Run rather than Hop.
- 14. Big mouth, rounded body, found in South America, can live 1-4 years in the wild
- 15. Small with claws on its front legs, have lungs not gills, lives entire life underwater, don't weigh more than a few grams

Down

- 1. Bright color bodies brings them high toxicity, Found in Central and South America.
- 2. Lizard-like bodies, Slimy, Slender.
- 3. 1 Foot Long, Included in the family of Salamanders, Found in the Western United States, Have Vocal abilities.
- 4. A type of Newt that is most common, a genus of the three species of ribbed newts.
- 6. wide eyes, thick arms, live in burrows, and feed on invertebrates, type of salamander, located in North America
- 7. Similar in appearance to a brown leaf, also completely flat, 8in in length, tiny eye, no teeth, no tongue

- 8. Body cover with warts, Body colors range from olive green to orange brown, Relative to a Frog.

- 10. Found in South Africa, lives in rocks and streams, get there name for living in skeleton gorge

- 12. Big red eyes, Soft green bodies, Can be found from Maryland to Central Texas, Has a sticky substance on its hands and feet to help it climb

- 13. Lack limbs, resemble a worm, dark smooth skin, up to 5 feet long, blind

Word Bank

Green Tree Frog
Mole Salamander
Hepheroliidae
African Dwarf Frog
Salamander

Surinam Toad
Ghost Frog
Pacific Giant Salamander
Pleurodeles
Caecilian

Alpine Newt
Tomato Frog
Toad
Poison Dart Frog
South American Horned Frog