

An introduction to the UK Parliament

Across

2. when the power is in the hands of the people, we speak of a ...
 4. to set forth for acceptance or rejection (of a law)
 7. to look in detail
 11. someone who is standing or acting for another especially through delegated authority
 12. a minority government or a ... government
 14. at the end of an inquiry, the committee writes a ...
 15. to conduct activities aimed at influencing public officials
 17. to dispute especially as being unjust, invalid, or outmoded
 19. to go on, engage in, or conduct a ... in order to win elections

22. person who keeps the House of Commons in order by moderating
 23. Once findings are gathered, a paper is published, which outlines a firmer plan for government policy.

Down

1. an electoral district
 3. genetically transmitted or transmittable from parent to offspring
 5. parties not in power are called the ...
 6. the leader of the party that has the most MPs elected after a general election becomes the Minister
 8. to moderate
 9. the monarch doesn't have real power or influence. His/her role is mainly ...

10. at the moment, Queen Elizabeth II is the ... of the UK.
 13. the government has been elected to run the country and Parliament holds the country to for us, the public.
 16. a proposal for a new law, or to change an existing law
 18. to change or modify (a law)
 20. to become a law, a bill needs royal ...
 21. A proposal, called a ... paper, is published, which presents the government's ideas for future policy.
 24. when there's no clear winner after elections, we speak of a ... parliament