

Anatomy and physiology of the eye

Across

2. What gets influenced by the size and shape of the eyeball?
 3. CN III is responsible for movement, what is its full name?
 5. What is the name of the chart that is being used in eye tests?
 7. What is a stimulus, responsible for eye movement, named?
 11. It is one of the four eye conditions.
 13. Visual tracking is part of what vision?

15. What is it being called when children must be learned to move their eyes when reading instead of their heads?
 16. What muscle moves the eyes in the opposite direction?
 17. What represents the slowest form of eye movement?
 19. What is the ability called when you can see a moving object from near or far?
 20. Of what system is the nystagmus and micro-saccade of fixation part?

Down

1. It is a certain level of detail or refractive vision.

4. What is the biological name for all the rectus muscles and oblique muscles of the eye?
 6. What is the vision called when you can only see nearby?
 8. What is Lateral Rectus, Medial Rectus, Superior Rectus, etc. being called?
 9. What coordination is very important when it comes to the eyes?
 10. It is a symptom of delays.
 12. What causes the movements of the eye?
 14. Which gender's eyes are better when they're younger?
 18. As what is 20/20 vision seen?