

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ancient Greece II

Across

4. the art of public speaking and debate

8. a branch of mathematics concerned with measurement and properties of points, lines, angles, surfaces, of figures that three dimensional

11. the philosophy of Epicurus who believed that happiness was the goal of life and avoiding pain was the key to happiness

12. words or actions that are part of a religious ceremony

13. a story that teaches a lesson

14. a story that is told by the actions and spoken words of actors

15. philosophical method of questioning to gain truth

18. , a branch of mathematics concerned with measurement and properties of points, lines, angles, surfaces, of figures that are flat or level

Down

1. the custom of passing stories from one generation to the next by telling stories out loud

2. Period of time after Alexander died when Greek culture spread to all the lands that had been part of his empire

3. a set of promises that new doctors make to treat patients well

5. Greek teachers of philosophy, reasoning, and public speaking

6. the outer boundary of a circle

7. soldiers who fight while riding horses

9. a priestess who speaks for the gods and answers questions about what will happen in the future

10. a drama in which characters struggle to overcome serious problems but fail

16. a drama with a happy ending

17. the philosophy of Stoics who believe wise people should use reason over emotion