

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ancient Italy and the Early Republic of Rome

Across

3. An official agreement between two or more countries, governments, or rulers.
5. An officer of ancient Rome who was elected by the plebeians to protect their interests.
8. The most important state council in ancient Rome.
9. Set up; Rome was _____ on the Tiber River.
10. Relating to an empire.

Down

1. A person's social standing.
2. A person who is an official member of a political body, such as a country.
4. The right or power of a government officer to vote down a law and keep it from being passed.
6. Two heads of the government in the Roman Republic, elected for one year.
7. A form of government by the people, who elect representatives to run the government for them.