

Andrew Jackson

Across

- 2. A debate between South Carolina Senator Hayne and Daniel Webster
- 5. To cancel an unconstitutional federal law
- 7. Something brought into the country
- 9. Make a large amount of products using machinery
- 10. Vice President who pronounced the Tariff of 1828 unconstitutional
- 11. Argued that the Union was not a compact of states but the work of the American people.

Down

- 1. The Tariff of 1828 that increased taxes on raw materials and lowered taxes on manufactured textiles.
- 3. Does not follow the rule of law, as stated in the U.S. Constitution
- 4. State believe it had the right to nullify an unconstitutional federal law in its own territory
- 6. The rights given to states by the U.S. Constitution, as stated in the 10th amendment.
- 8. A tax or duty

Word Bank

- | | | |
|------------------------|----------------|------------------|
| South Carolina | Import | Unconstitutional |
| Tariff of Abominations | Daniel Webster | John Calhoun |
| States' Rights | Webster-Hayne | Manufacturers |
| Nullify | Tariff | |