

Name: _____

Date: _____

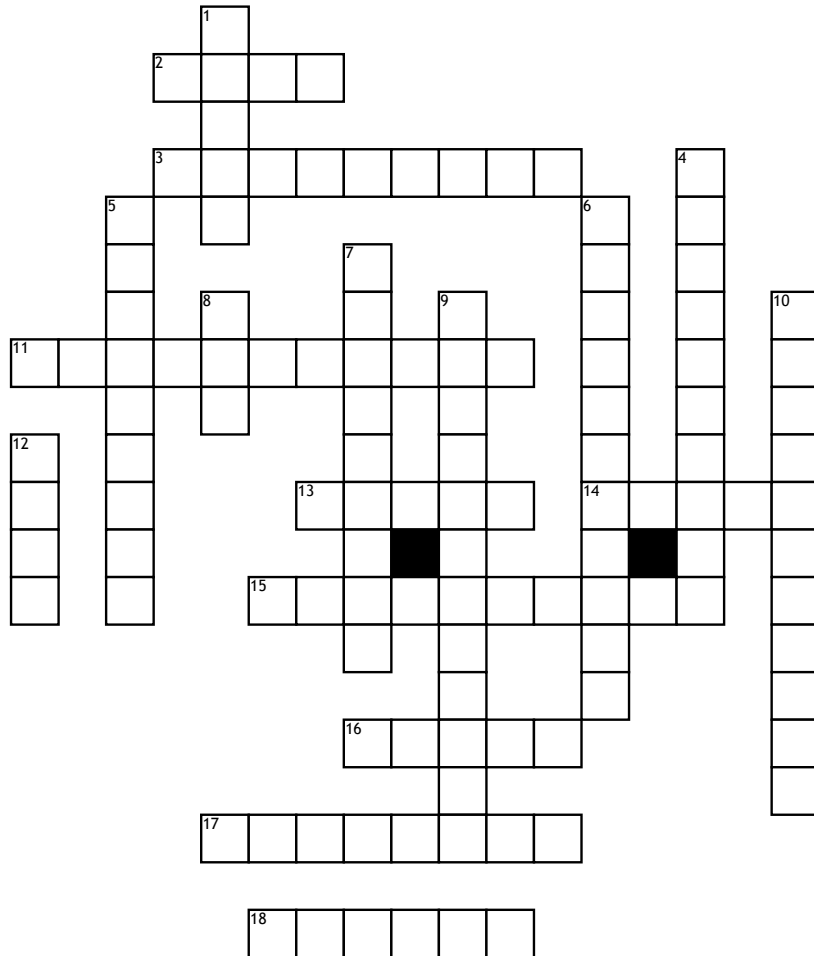

Animal Digestion

Across

2. Number of chambers in a ruminant stomach
3. The small intestine absorbs this.
11. The act of swallowing.
13. Largest compartment of the ruminant stomach, contains many microbes.
14. The monogastric stomach secretes this to break down feed.
15. Another word for belching.
16. The large intestine absorbs this.
17. Also known as the "true stomach" in ruminants.
18. Compartment of the ruminant stomach that has many folds and grinds feed.

Down

1. Rounded, softened mass of food ready to swallow.
4. The act of grasping food and bringing it to the mouth.
5. This type of feed is high in fiber and low in energy.
6. The act of chewing.

7. Stomach compartment also known as the "honeycomb." Catches foreign materials.
8. Regurgitated feed that is chewed a second time.
9. This type of feed is low in fiber and high in energy.
10. Muscle contractions in the esophagus.
12. Fluid secreted by the liver, helps digest fats.

