

Annual Safety Training

Across

2. Safety should be a _____ in all work activities.

7. _____ controls are processes that can help minimize exposure to BBP.

9. Methods that are built into the design of a facility, equipment or process to minimize the hazard are _____.

14. Stop, _____, and _____, are the steps an individual should do if their clothing is on fire.

17. _____ is the responsibility of all employees.

18. Chemical solid debris waste are disposed of in _____ colored drums.

19. Number 1 work injury that results in missed work days

21. _____ Response team are a group of staff members that are able to respond to spill events.

22. The method used to close biohazard bags when they are 3/4 full.

23. _____ the incident should be done for known or potential exposure events

Down

1. Decontamination solution that has a 2 minute contact time and is alcohol and quaternary based.

3. Used for infectious biological agents and creates a sterile work environment.

4. Bins used to transport biological materials between labs are considered _____.

5. Corporate document that discusses chemical awareness, incident reporting, and waste disposal.

6. The number of labels placed on a sharps container.

8. Safety improves

10. Biohazard bins must be _____ with labeled biohazard bags.

11. No Hepa filter and is connected to the buildings exhaust system.

12. Corporate policies can be obtained from human resources or _____.

13. Safety creates a _____ work environment

15. Improper disposal and processing of biohazard and/or chemical waste can lead to _____ infractions.

16. An accident that could have resulted in a potential injury is considered a _____ and should be reported.

20. Acronym of the document that provides information regarding the company's policy on: safe versus unsafe work practices, anonymous reporting, and disciplinary action.