

Anthropology

Across

6. Savagery to Barbarism to Civilization

10. A person who is sexually attracted to people of the opposite sex

12. How we learn what we know

13. Leading superpowers, strong GDP, much inequality

14. Is a social construct

15. Food production rather than food gathering

17. Descent group who can demonstrate their common descent from an apical ancestor

18. A person who is sexually attracted to people of the same sex

19. Herders who focus on animals, such as goats, sheep, cattle, camels, and yaks

20. A group with their own set of beliefs and ideologies

Down

1. A traditional gender role found in the US that views males as being responsible for economic support and protection of the family

2. Typical of peoples who see themselves as a part of nature rather than superior to it

3. Gift from husband's kin to wife's kin; stabilizes marriage by acting like insurance

4. Study of language in society

5. Process by which a child learns his or her culture

7. Your story, your words, your experience with illness

8. A person who has no sexual feelings or desires

9. Gives line-by-line categorization of specific notes

11. Sexual relations with a close relative

16. A belief that the word is animated by impersonal supernatural powers