

Anxiety Exceptionalities (All information has been acquired from the textbook for this course)

Across

- 3. Repeated and unexpected panic attacks.
- 7. A discrete period during which the individual experiences a severe and sudden onset of intense apprehension, fearfulness, or terror, typically associated with feelings of disaster.
- 8. Fear of spiders.
- 9. What is a response to current danger?
- 10. Fear and anxiety associated with specific types of social or performance situations.

Down

- 1. Intense fear or anxiety in relation to actual or anticipated separation from significant others.
- 2. Intense anxiety and worry about a variety of events or activities.
- 4. A failure to speak frequently as they acquire language skills.
- 5. Worry about and avoidance of situations that individuals fear they'll be unable to escape should they experience a panic attack or related symptoms.
- 6. A negative emotional state characterized by the worry, fear, and bodily reactions related to thoughts of an actual or potential event, object, or situation.