

Name: _____

Date: _____

Ap Gov. Exam Review

Across

7. A special tax that must be paid as a qualification for voting.

9. Four justices must vote to grant a petition for review case if a case is to come before the full court.

10. Healthcare for 65 and older.

11. A procedure by which voters can propose a law or constitutional amendment.

12. Campaign contributions unregulated by federal or state law, usually given to parties and party committees to help fund general party activities.

14. An arrangement in which two or more members of Congress agree in advance to support each others bills.

15. An intraparty election in which voters select the candidates who will run on a party ticket in the subsequent general election.

18. To stand on decided cases; the judicial policy of following precedents established by past decisions.

19. A person who opposed the ratification of the new Constitution 1787.

20. An organization or individual who attempts to influence legislation and the administrative decisions of government.

Down

1. A large organization that is structured hierarchically to carry out specific functions.

2. A system of government in which power is divided by a written Constitution

3. Judicial Review is established in this court case.

4. A party leader or elected official who is given the right to vote at the party national convention.

5. A centralized governmental system in which local or subdivisional governments exercise only those powers given to them by the central government.

6. A three-way alliance among legislator.

8. Healthcare for the poor.

13. A meeting of party members designed to select candidates and propose policies.

16. Members of Congress who aid the majority or minority leader of the House or the Senate.

17. A group or bloc in a legislature or political party acting in pursuit of some special interest or position.