

Name: _____

Date: _____

Appointment Power Crossword

Across

4. What kind of voting system are the secretary of state, treasurer, and attorney general selected
8. Governors created these to bring together agencies to address issues such as needs for children.
9. their power are limited with regards to heads of state education
10. Governors have limited authority in appointing these

Down

1. This department is independently elected in 14 states
2. large number of states provide for independent selection of these
3. Exists in the overwhelming majority of states
5. one of three subject to statewide popular election in the majority of states
6. These serves as advisory councils to the nation's governors.
7. This is a possible requirement for many of the positions