

Aquatic Biomes

Across

2. Lakes, streams, rivers and ponds are 1/100 of 1% of the _____ water on earth.
3. A near shore zone.
5. The surface layer of the ocean that receives sunlight.
7. zone found at the bottom of a lake.
9. Another name for a littoral zone.
11. Also known as a phytoplankton.
14. Estuaries are productive ecosystems because the constantly receive nutrients from

15. Leads to an increase in nutrients in an aquatic ecosystem.

17. Wetland dominated by woody plants

19. Organisms that break down dead organisms.

20. Tiny organisms found in the oceans that are plantlike

Down

1. Relatively shallow part of the ocean .

4. How do oysters and clams feed.

6. Tiny animal like organisms found in the oceans.

8. The amount of dissolved salts in water.

10. A deep zone of an inland body of water below the range of effective light penetration.

12. Area where fresh water mixes with salt water.

13. An example of a phytoplankton.

16. 71% of the earth is covered by

18. Wetland not dominated by woody plants.