

Name: _____

Date: _____

Archery

Across

1. A wrapping of thread around the bowstring to protect it from the nock
2. The arm that holds the bow while shooting
5. Point on an archer's face that the index finger touches
7. Made of plastic or feathers
11. A small protrusion on the bow
14. Upper part of the bow
15. An Arrow used to shoot aerial disc targets

16. What holds your arrows when you are shooting

18. The stiffness of of an arrow shaft relative to its thickness, weight, and length
19. The odd colored fletching
20. The point on the bowstring where the nock goes
21. The cutaway section of the bow above its handle

Down

3. The inner side of the bow, closest to the string

4. Bowstring threat is called

6. A line at a specified distance from the target

8. What should you never do with a bow

9. Lower part of the bow

10. The rigid center portion of the bow that is held during shooting

12. A piece of leather or other material worn on the arm

13. A sighting device

17. The outer side of the bow, farthest away from the string

Word Bank

Upper Limb	Index	Handle	Arrow Rest	Anchor Point	Quivers
Sight Window	Fletchings	Serving	Flu-Flu	Arm Guard	Dacron
Dryfire	Shooting Line	Face	Bow Sight	Bow Arm	Lower Limb
Nocking Point	Spine	Back			