

Argument Writing Vocabulary

Across

1. the opposing viewpoint or the opposite of the main claim in an essay
3. when something such as a piece of writing is easy to understand because its parts are connected in a clear and reasonable way
4. a statement that a speaker or writer is trying to prove, usually by using evidence
9. a personal view, attitude, or judgment
10. details or quotes from a text that directly relate to the subject or problem being discussed or considered

11. reasoned thinking that supports a specific claim or position
13. a piece of factual writing in which ideas on a single topic are presented, explained, argued, or described in an interesting way
14. correct or suitable for a particular time, situation, or purpose
15. a justification of a claim; an explanation
16. identify information in the text that supports understanding and uses that evidence to explain ideas

Down

2. evidence that is relevant and specific

5. to give the reader a clear picture in his/her mind
6. a method of doing something which involves several steps or stages
7. to move by argument or evidence to belief, agreement, consent, or a course of action
8. not related to the subject being discussed
12. the specific reason a person has for writing