

Argumentation/MLK Dream Crossword Review

Across

- 3. "We will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together" is primarily a _____ to the audience to do something as a result of being convinced of a message.
- 8. Light vs. Dark would be considered a _____.
- 10. _____ are used to create personification.
- 12. A narrative illustration or story is called an _____.
- 14. In the beginning of MLK Dream speech, MLK quotes what important document in order to stress that certain rights are guaranteed by the Constitution?
- 17. The Common Ground strategy identifies the interests, _____, beliefs or values of the reader/audience and uses this for persuasive means.
- 19. _____ is the appeal to reason.
- 21. A rhetorical question is not meant to be answered _____; however, it is directly connected to the main ideas of an argument and furthers the argument by making the audience "revisit" the main points.

- 22. Both sensory details and figurative language will enable the reader/audience to _____ an image and see the effects of what is being described.
 - 23. "We shall not flag or fail. We shall go on to the end. We shall..." is an example of the strategy _____.
 - 24. When arguing a point, you must always include the _____ side of the argument.
- Down
- 1. King's intended effect in his speech is to _____ people to improve the civil rights of all Americans.
 - 2. MLK uses the image of _____ so that readers/listeners of his speech can envision and embrace his ideal vision of eliminating racial injustice.
 - 4. "To show kindness is praiseworthy; to show hatred is evil" is primarily an example of _____.
 - 5. "I will love you until the sea runs dry" is an example of a _____.
 - 6. Ethos is the appeal to _____.
 - 7. "The earth drank the blood" is an example of _____.

- 9. In the ballad "Pride" by U2, Bono and crew end the ballad with tone of _____.
- 11. Another name for persuasion that is all encompassing is _____.
- 13. uses the word _____, he means the improper use of power of one race over another.
- 15. King quotes "My Country, 'tis of Thee" to illustrate that the US was founded on people fighting for their _____.
- 16. MLK hopes that the need to struggle for basic rights will no longer exist when he says, "every hill and mountain shall be made _____".
- 18. The ending of the "I Have a Dream" speech evokes a strong feeling of _____.
- 20. The theme of "Pride" is that causes based on _____ will outlive the people who promote injustice.