

Argumentative Text

Across

7. A way of stating something (as a written work) again by giving the meaning in different words.
9. The emotion the reader feels while reading.
10. a view or judgment formed about something, not necessarily based on fact or knowledge.
11. An assertion or statement usually supported by evidence.
15. A particular inclination, feeling or opinion about a subject that is often preconceived or unseasoned.
16. A viewpoint that opposes an author's claim or thesis.
17. A comparison using like or as. "He is as tall as a giant."

18. Specific details or facts that support an inference or idea.

20. The author's attitude toward a subject.

21. Information that actually exists and can be proven to be true.

Down

1. Pieces of information that support or tell more about the main idea.

2. A question asked in order to create a dramatic effect or to make a point to the audience but not intended to be answered.

3. The reason an author writes about a particular topic (PIEE- Persuade, Inform, Entertain, Express)

4. A reason or judgement that has faults and imperfections.

5. Text in which the author is trying to convince the reader of something.

6. Incorrect or problematic arguments that are not based on sound reasoning.

8. A text in which the writer develops and defends a position or debates a topic using logic and persuasion.

12. The intended target group for a message, regardless of the medium.

13. An intentional and extreme exaggeration for emphasis or effect. Ex (this book weighs a ton)

14. A reason for or against something.

19. A figure of speech that states one thing is something else. "The snow is a white blanket"