

Name: _____

Date: _____

Art 1

1. What drawing medium is like paint in a stick? You build up layers of one over another to smooth it out. A. Still-Life
2. What medium comes in black and white and can be smudged with a blending stump or your finger? B. Connecting
3. What paint medium is permanent when dry? C. portrait
4. What paint medium is water soluble and may crack when dry? D. Charcoal
5. This is the landscape layer that is closest to the viewer. E. creating
6. This is the landscape layer that is the furthest away and usually contains the horizon line. F. Foreground
7. This layer of a landscape falls just below the background and above the foreground. G. Acrylic
8. The genre of every day life. H. Watercolor
9. The genre that depicts a group of objects together. I. Value
10. The genre featuring a significant moment in history, real or fictional. J. Oil Pastel
11. This genre features a face. K. Ink
12. This learning goal helps us learn how to make art like a artist. L. Tempera
13. This learning goal helps us to show our work like an artist. M. Middle ground
14. This learning goal helps us to add meaning or purpose to our art. N. History
15. This type of paint medium goes on in thin layers and can bleed into other areas that are wet. O. Medium
16. This is the term for the materials you used to make art. P. Genre
17. Lightness or darkness of an object. Q. Background
18. This drawing medium uses crosshatch or stipple to create value. R. Presenting