

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Arthropods

- | | |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------|
| 1. Any structure, such as a leg or an antenna. | A. Pedipalps |
| 2. Air-filled chambers that contains leaflike plates. | B. Molting |
| 3. Shedding the old exoskeletons | C. Chelicerae |
| 4. The first pair of appendages located near the mouth. | D. Book lung |
| 5. Series of changes, controlled by chemical substances in the animal | E. Appendage |
| 6. The mouthpart of most arthropods groups include one pair of jaws | F. Cephalothorax |
| 7. A form of asexual reproduction in which a new individual develops from an unfertilized egg | G. Metamorphosis |
| 8. A visual structure with many lenses | H. Parthenogenesis |
| 9. The second pair of appendages are adapted for handling food and for sensing | I. Compound eye |
| 10. Abdomen and a fused head and thorax | J. Mandibles |