

Name: _____

Date: _____

Assessment of the Head, Ear, Face, Nose, Eyes, Mouth, Throat, and Neck

Across

2. dome shaped, white-ish, aka roof of the mouth

5. uses only inspection and palpation; looking for roundness and symmetry

13. Method of physical examination whereby the fingers or hands of the examiner are applied to the patient's body to feel body parts underlying the skin

14. is used to test distant vision in patients

15. Method of physical examination by which the patient is visually and systematically examined for appearance, structure, function, and behavior

17. is the ability to adjust the focus of the eyes as the distance between the individual and the object changes

18. the acronym for normal pupillary reaction in all tests

19. Lets you smell and it's a big part of why you are able to taste things

20. The hypoglossal nerve can affect this organ

Down

1. located behind the pillars and should be pink, smooth, and well hydrated

3. Palpation and otoscope

4. the point connecting the mandible to the skull

6. texture, tenderness, and skin lesions test

7. Method of physical examination; listening to the sounds produced by the body, usually with a stethoscope

8. size, shape, symmetry, landmarks, position, and color test

9. Inspection of the mouth includes looking at color, texture, hydration, and looking for any _____

10. should be smooth and without lesions

11. Inspect the patient's head, noting the position, _____, shape, and contour

12. located by palpating the midline of the neck below the cricoid cartilage.

16. contains a hard and soft part located on the roof of the mouth