Name: _____

Assistive Technology

Across

2. This assistive technology displays the braille alphabet on the keys. It allows the visually impaired or blind to type what they are thinking.

7. This app helps the communicator build vocabulary and skills. It takes advantage of motor learning and introduces new vocabulary.

8. A way of organizing whole words and symbols in a communication book that allows childrent to communicate wants and needs.

9. This is a smart pen that provides the means for teachers to record classroom discussions.

10. This assistive technology app allows a student to select what they want or need from a list of custmomizable photos or options.

Down

1. This A.T helps aid literacy in the classroom. It allows students to have the text read to them either from books or the web. It is a downloadable app on any technological device.

3. This A.T. is a software that offers picture dictionaries, summary highlights, text prediction, and read aloud text to help students who are ELL or have Dyslexia.

4. This A.T. is just like a regular mouse but, it was specially designed by doctors to ensure that the hand is in a natural position. It is great for people who struggle with fine motor skills or muscle control.

5. This utilizes eye gaze technology and allows any individual to use a computer. It even allows them to use a computer if they are unable to use a mouse.

6. An assistive technology that utilizes any writing software and uses word prediction to guess what word may be used next.