

Attachment Crossword

Across

- 5. The time period in which an attachment needs to be formed to prevent future social and emotional effects to the infant
- 8. Crying, laughing, reaching out are all examples of...
- 11. A two-way emotional tie to a specific other person
- 13. Infants ability to immitate carers' facial expressions
- 15. Schaffer and Emerson did a study on infants all from what city
- 16. A child's attachment to one particular adult

17. The type of attachment where infants aren't interested in the mother

18. The age at which infants start to show separation and stranger anxiety

19. The process whereby birds become attached and follow the first large, moving object they see

Down

1. The period of a child's life before they can speak

2. 66% of infants are attached this way to their PCG

3. Learning by association

4. To the majority of infants (65%) their primary care-giver is their...

6. Infants show signs of distress towards unfamiliar adults

7. Term for psychologists who study behaviours

9. The response produced from the stimulus of food

10. Relationship between infant and PCG which serves a template for future relationships

12. Psychologist who did the investigation, The Strange Situation

14. The psychologist who carried out the investigation on eight macaque monkeys