

Name: _____

Date: _____

August Vocabulary Words

Across

2. A precise and and recognizable fact
3. A characters qualities that contrasts with a different character's qualities
5. Specific items that have a deeper meaning to them
7. The feeling an author puts forth when writing their story
8. A mention of an important historical figure outside of the book

9. The prominently understood message the story tries to convey
10. The feeling the reader gets from reading the story or lines in the story
11. When a story can be interpreted multiple different ways
12. Descriptive words in the story that cause the reader to get an image of the scene being discussed

Down

1. A clear and concise thought that opens a paper and includes the topic of that paper
4. Details in the story used to make inferences about anything coming up in the book
6. Notes about the story by readers and editors with suggestions for the story or the structure of the book