

Australia Values and Multiculturalism

Across

2. a civil remedy where the court orders the defendant to pay an amount of money to the plaintiff (the person whose rights have been breached)

5. the legal term for damaging someone's reputation in written form

9. a minor offence heard and determined in the lower courts, also known as a summary offence

10. to suppress free speech or other information

11. limits on freedom of speech, association, assembly, religion and movement to avoid breaking the law

12. the separation of the church and state that prevents religion from being directly involved in the affairs if the government

13. making requests to politicians or groups for their assistance in trying to influence a change in the law

16. the strong relationship between mates or friends, which is based on loyalty, support and the ability to rely on each other

17. a key concept in civics and citizenship: the way in which individuals as good citizens take part in and make a contribution to society

18. a person who has chosen to live in another country

19. treating someone differently because of their race, sex or other characteristics

20. a sense of a united nation, made up of a country's shared history, values and culture

Down

1. the way in which people of many different cultures, races and religions live peacefully with one another as equals

3. a system of government where citizens meet together to make laws for their society

4. law created when a judge makes a ruling about a case that is not covered by statutory law

6. the legal term for verbally damaging someone's reputation

7. a document that describes the rules, or laws, that govern Australia and defines its structure, and its citizens' rights

8. a person who has fled his or her country due to a fear of prosecution and has applied for protection in another country

14. also known as non-violent resistance

15. a type of civil action where one party makes false statements that causes another party to lose their reputation