

Australian Government Crossword

Across

1. What can the Queen also be called?
3. What is the legislature responsible for creating?
4. How many houses of parliament is the legislature made up of?
8. Is the Senate the lower or the upper house?
9. What is a formal written order?
12. How many changes are there when holding a referendum in Australia?
13. What month did the Australian Constitution come into effect?

14. Is the House of Representatives the lower or the upper house?
15. What colour is the Senate?
16. How many chapters is the Australian Constitution divided into?
17. What is one of the main branches of government that start with the letter 'e'?
18. What colour is The House of Representatives?
19. How many main federal courts are there in Australia that laws can be enforced??
20. What is a majority of proposed laws called?

Down

2. Who is the Queens representatives in Australia?
5. What do the senators of the senate represent?
6. What is the Australian Constitution?
7. How many senators is the senate made up of?
10. How many chapters of the Australian Constitution define the three main branches of government?
11. To change the constitution, a proposal must be approved by parliament. It is then voted on by the Australian people. What is this known as?