Name: _____ Date: _____

BA 3.1 (Crossword Puzzle)

Across

2. Software _____ is a way of assessing quality of a software to reduce the risk of software failure in operation

7. In order to implement effective test monitoring and control, it is important to establish and maintain _____.

8. The element of human psychology called confirmation _____ can make it difficult to accept information that disagrees with currently held beliefs.

9. Test _____ involves the on-going comparison of actual progress against planned progress.

10. _____ testing is a type of testing where you review work products such as requirements, user stories and source code.

Down

1. Test _____ involves taking actions necessary to meet the objectives of the test plan.

3. During Test _____ ,the test basis is analyzed to identify testable features and define associated test conditions.

4. Development activity that analyzes,finds and fixes defects found in the software.

5. Who is often more interested in designing and building solutions?

6. _____ testing is a type of testing where you execute the component or system that's being tested.