

BB words review wk of 8/22

Across

5. An idea that allows us to create explanations of how the something may work. Models can be physical or mental
8. Show a relationship between variable; particularly useful for showing changes in variable over time.
9. Use division to compare two values.
10. The length of the bars are used to represent and compare data; numerical scale is used to determine the lengths of the bars.

Down

1. Shows two sets of data.
2. Ratio that compares a number to 100.
3. Expectation of who will happen or be observed.
4. Represent data as part of a circle; used only when the data can be represented as percentages of a whole.
6. Organize and record the measurements that you make.
7. Includes both scientific observations and inferences.