

Name: _____

BDI3C Crossword Assgnmnt

Across

1. A type of an unincorporated entity that is owned by one individual only.
5. Acts as an agent that provides financial services for its clients. Common types of financial institutions include banks, building societies, credit unions, stock brokerages, and similar business.
6. A form of business operation that declares the business as a separate, legal entity guided by a group of officers known as the board of directors.
8. The aggregation of buyers and sellers of stocks, which represent ownership claims on businesses.
9. A business that provides banking services for profit.
10. A legal form of business operation between two or more individuals who share management and profits.
11. A summary of how a business owner, manager, or entrepreneur intends to organize an entrepreneurial endeavor and implement activities necessary and sufficient for the venture to succeed.
12. Refers to sole proprietorships and general partnerships in which the owner or partners are each liable for business debts.

Down

2. A not-for-profit co-operative financial institution that is owned and controlled by its members, through the election of a volunteer Board of Directors elected from the membership itself.
3. A liability that is limited to a partner or investor's investment. Shareholders in a corporation or in a limited liability company cannot lose more money than the value of their shares if the corporation runs into debt, as they are not personally responsible for the corporation's obligations.

4. Capital typically provided by outside investors for financing of new, growing, or struggling businesses. Venture capital investments generally are high risk investments but offer the potential for above average returns.
7. An asset is usually purchased or, equivalently, a deposit is made in a bank, in hopes of getting a future return or interest from it. Literally, the word means the "action of putting something in to somewhere else"

