

BNW Vocabulary

Across

- 1. quality of having a friendly manner
- 4. kept secret due to lack of approval
- 5. in accordance with what is required
- 8. pale due to poor health
- 9. expressing feelings of gratitude
- 10. rudely brief or abrupt
- 11. overcome with anger
- 12. not self-indulgent
- 15. great in extent, size, or degree
- 20. impossible to understand or interpret
- 24. condition of generosity
- 25. talk at length to oneself
- 27. holes through which air can pass
- 29. ask for or obtain
- 30. extremely dirty and unpleasant
- 32. making of amends for a wrong
- 33. believing in it practicing religious heresy

- 36. experienced or present to max degree
- 38. hot and humid or attractive
- 39. shaking or quivering slightly
- 42. done to impress
- 43. imitation of style from another
- 44. sincere affection and kindness
- 45. having or showing zeal
- 46. bringing forth live young
- 47. attempting to avoid notice or attention
- 48. showing deference; respectful
- 49. inexperienced and immature

Down

- 2. persisting tirelessly
- 3. assuming power without justification
- 6. run with quick light steps
- 7. making or characterized by a hissing sound
- 13. involving or limited to basic principles

- 14. not in harmony or keeping up with surroundings
- 16. drink heartily
- 17. of or connected with sense of touch
- 18. a narrow opening
- 19. utterly odious or wicked
- 21. reparation for a wrong or injury
- 22. eager to argue or fight
- 23. a mark of disgrace associated with something
- 26. sudden attack or violent expression
- 28. quality in a sound of being deep
- 31. given to moralizing in a pompous manner
- 34. unable to be destroyed; lasting
- 35. not harmful or offensive
- 37. having a red or flushed complexion
- 40. gradually spread through or over
- 41. self-pitying through drunkenness