

Name: _____

BSC_233_ Exercising Discretion

Across

3. USCIS may exercise discretion on an I-130 by revoking an approved visa petition "for _____ and sufficient cause," and humanitarian reinstatement of approved immediate relative petitions.
6. What is the acronym depicting one's overall character that is adjudicated for naturalization as a matter of discretion?
7. The favorable exercise of prosecutorial discretion means a discretionary decision _____ to assert the full scope of USCIS's authority.
9. One of the three administrative body acronyms that begins with a "B".
11. _____ discretion is a decision by an agency charged with enforcing the law to enforce, or not enforce, the law against someone.
12. Form I-212 Application for Permission to Reapply for Admission into the United States after _____ or removal.

16. 2) _____ discretion involves the affirmative decision whether to grant a benefit under adjudicative standards and procedures provided by statute, regulation or policy which give the agency discretion in determining whether to grant the benefit.
19. Another name for eligibility determinations. (three words, no spaces)
20. The actual ground of inadmissibility for which a waiver is sought may be counted as an _____ (two words, no space).
21. Form I-601 Application for Waiver of Grounds of _____.
22. The USCIS _____ (two words, no space) includes templates for use in I-601 and I-212 adjudications. (Some may also know that this has been decommissioned and has been replaced by CHAP very recently.)

Down

1. INA § 242(a)(2)(B) protects the exercise of discretion from _____ (two words, no space), which arguably includes the discretionary USCIS decisions discussed above.

2. The exercise of discretion requires a balancing of the social and humanitarian considerations against the _____ factors present in the applicant's case.
4. Extreme hardship exists "only in cases of great actual or _____ injury" to the qualifying relative.
5. A matter of administrative grace where the applicant has the burden of showing that discretion should be exercised in his favor. (Three words, no spaces)
8. Furnishing of information otherwise protected by the _____ confidentiality provisions under INA § 245A(c)(5)(C).
10. I-751 Waiver of joint filing requirement to _____ conditions on permanent residence.
13. One of the three administrative body acronyms that begins with an "I" as in igloo.
14. Notice to Appear acronym
15. _____ of approved visa petitions under INA § 205.
17. Status granted acronym on a temporary basis to a country based on adverse, country-wide conditions.
18. One of the three administrative body acronyms that begins with "A"