

Name: _____

Date: _____

Banking 2

Across

2. Sum total of credits minus debits shown in passbook
 4. Any claim on the property of the organisation
 9. System based on level of gold
 10. Proportion that is charged as interest to the borrowers as an annual percentage of loan
 12. A method of exchange in which usually people exchange for goods and services and vice versa

13. Property owned by a company

15. A debt instrument through which investor loans money to an organisation

Down

1. Account entry that represents the money you owe or money that has been taken from your account
 3. Liquid assets such as cash is an example of

5. One of the policy of RBI in which rates of interest are determined

6. Money in the form of notes and coins

7. Money placed into a banking institution for safe keeping

8. Business done with a bank including deposits and withdrawals

11. Sum of money expected to be paid back along with interest

14. Corporations sell part of their company in the form of