

Bar-Chapter 11 Properties of the Hair and Scalp

Across

- 3. What is a tube like depression on the skin or scalp that encases the hair root?
- 7. A involuntary muscle that gives you goose bumps is known as?
- 12. The 2 principal parts of a mature strand of hair is known as?
- 14. Normal hair contains how much oxygen?
- 15. The thickness or diameter of hair refers to the?
- 17. A cone shaped elevation locted at the bottom of the hair follicle is called?
- 18. How many amino acids can your body produce?

19. Unpigmented hair that is short, fine and downy is known as?

- 20. Gray hair is known as?
  - 21. Head lice is known as?
  - 22. What melanin gives red, ginger, yellow and blond their tones?
- Down
- 1. Hair that can stretch and return to it original form without breaking is called?
  - 2. Hair found on the scalp, legs, arms and body is known as?
  - 4. Hair is composed into 3 layers what are they?

- 5. Oil glands of the skin that are connected to hair follicles are known as?
- 6. Hair loss in round or irregular patches without inflammation is called?
- 8. The ability of hair to absorb moisture is?
- 9. Split ends is known as?
- 10. what is the pigment found in the cortex?
- 11. The study of hair is known as?
- 13. Normal hair contains how much of a percent of carbon?
- 16. The lower part of the hair root that is thickened and club shaped known as?