

Basics of computer

Across

- 4. the device that does one specific task is known as
- 5. Collection of computers connected to share information
- 7. Parts of a computer that can touch and see
- 9. the input device that used to enter the numbers and alphabets
- 10. Information processing cycle includes Input, output, Storage and

- 11. Instructions given to the computer is known as
 - 14. Set of software that perform a specific task
 - 15. One advantage of network is to share
- Down
- 1. The time taken to respond to an action
 - 2. Output device that gives visual interaction to user is
 - 3. The device that does different task is known as

- 6. Information is the result of processed
- 8. Number of pixels that form a screen image
- 12. The process of switching on the computer and loading the software is known as
- 13. the basic screen that appears when switching on the computer