

Bat Rays

Across

2. Which gender Bat Ray is known to grow bigger than the other?

3. They can also use their _____ to dig invertebrates out of the sand to feed on.

5. _____ can be a huge threat to bat rays whether they are being caught on accident or purposely.

6. What is one predator of the Bat Ray?

7. When bat Rays find their prey they _____ it and crush it with their plate-like teeth to kill it.

8. Fossils of Bat Rays have been found that have been dated back _____ of years.

10. Bat Rays generally live in _____ water where it is muddy, or contains a kelp forest.

13. They have a _____ that can be used to sting when they feel threatened.

14. Bat Rays are often found in _____ schools (large or small)

Down

1. What is the scientific name for a Bat Ray

4. Bat Rays are often found in _____ because they are easy to take care of.

9. The most popular prey item of a Bat Ray is...

11. In the ocean food chain Bat Rays are considered...

12. Are bat rays an endangered species?