

Name: _____

Bathing and elimination Activity

Across

2. is the excessive formation of gas or air in the stomach and intestines.

4. helps keep skin as well as the genital and anal areas clean by removing microbes, dead skin, perspiration, and excess oils.

9. Scant amount of urine - usually less than 500 ml in 24 hours.

10. Gas and air passed through the anus.

11. an artificial opening between the colon and the abdominal wall.

12. involves cleaning the genital and anal areas, which provide a warm, moist and dark place suitable for microbes to grow.

Down

1. is the prolonged retention and accumulation of feces in the rectum.

3. involves bathing the face, hands, axillae, back, buttocks and perineal area.

5. the introduction of fluid into the rectum and lower colon.

6. painful or difficult urination

7. a by-product of fatty acid metabolism

8. Dark, tarry stools containing decomposing blood.