

Behavior Modification

Across

- 4. Meaningless repetition of another person's words
- 8. One of the steps for Antecedent-Based Intervention
- 10. An event that occurred prior to the behavior
- 11. A technique that is intended to guide a child's behavior from inappropriate to appropriate

Down

- 1. The ability to perform a task or activity across settings, with different people and at different times

- 2. An individualized short story that describes social relevant cues in any given situation.
- 3. The repetition of physical movements, sounds, words, or moving objects
- 5. A TAY strategy
- 6. The measurement of the behaviors before interventions are started
- 7. A stimulus that increases the likelihood that a behavior will happen
- 9. They are specific and help us define mastery