

Behavior & Physiology

Across

4. _____ condition, life long or long term condition
5. Emotion and sentience are believed associated with what system
8. Animals always try to avoid _____
11. Its main role is to produce adrenaline
12. You should always thin in the _____ perspective

13. Neurotransmitter associated with anxiety and fear

14. Type of problems that needs to be ruled-out before trying to "fix" a behavior

Down

1. Adrenaline; cortisol; vasopressin and oxytocin are all examples of:
2. When many different trigger add up
3. Secrets hormones that regulates pain response

6. Its main function is to maintain homeostasis

7. Maintaining it is top priority in all animals and so can influence behavior

9. Temporary condition the animal is in (diarrhea is an example of an _____ illness)

10. A lack of this certain hormone can cause sever obesity