

Bilingualism

Across

7. People who speak more than one language but did not learn them at the same time

8. Neuropsychological test used to assess the ability to inhibit cognitive interference

11. The approximate amount of people in the world that are bilingual

13. Test book made implicit that the disadvantages of bilingualism are

15. Your attitude is equally as important towards a cultural group when language-learning as _____

16. When speaking more than one language, the language systems are stored _____

17. Initial language a person learned, also referred to as native language

18. When journals publish research in which a significant effect is reported

19. Someone who uses more than two languages

Down

1. Proposed that this area of the brain has encouraged development when bilingual

2. Someone who learned two languages simultaneously during childhood

3. Can be used to assess stereotypes

4. Sorting into general rules or classes

5. Reason for bilingualism

6. Applies to someone who first learned a different language

9. This is needed in order to best support someone learning a second language

10. Someone who is fluent in two languages

12. Just over a year delay on average of this disorder for bilinguals as compared to monolinguals

14. Knowledge about the form and structure of language

Word Bank

metalinguistics

bilingual speaker

aptitude

together

publication bias

multilingual speaker

simultaneous bilingualism

Stroop Test

executive attention network

half

value first language

second language communication

sequential bilingualism

Implicit Association Test

first language

dementia

Concept formation task

minor