

Biological Psychology

Across

1. What type of selection is by the environment?
3. What type of neurotransmitter negatively charges the neuron?
7. What type of drug mimics the action of a natural biochemical?
9. What is the term for death energy and shows willpower and restraint, but also drives us to sabotage our lives?
10. What type of scan did Raine et al use?

11. For which difference does the d stand for in the biological practical?
12. What type of test did Brendgen use?
13. Which lobe is mainly used for memory?
15. Which key brain structure is involved in aggression?
16. What, according to Freud, helps release anger and prevent further aggression?

Down

2. What's the word for when something controls the opposite side of the body?

4. What was the sample for Brendgen's study?
5. Which hormone may show that aggression in men may be caused by nature rather than nurture?
6. In which lobe was activity found that was not previously thought to be linked to aggression in Raine et al?
8. What is the name of the defense mechanism that is acted upon and transformed into something socially acceptable?
14. Which type of scan shows chemical activity?