

Biology Careers Crossword

Across

3. Someone who inspects crime scenes for evidence such as hair, saliva, finger prints, etc. then examines them in a laboratory focusing on DNA analysis.

6. A biologist who studies genetics, the science of genes, and heredity.

9. Also called animal biology, these people study the animal kingdom, genetics, diseases, origins, etc. of animals.

10. A registered nurse who can prescribe medicine, examine patients, diagnose illnesses and provide treatment.

11. A medical professional who is concerned with restoring health through the study, diagnosis and treatment of disease, injury and other physical and mental impairments.

12. The scientific study of marine life and organisms in the sea.

13. Scientists who work on ways to lessen humanities impact on the environment.

14. A branch of biology concerned with how drugs work so they can be used effectively and safely.

Down

1. Medical provider who is licensed to diagnose and treat illnesses and works along side a physician.

2. The use of living systems and organisms to develop new products.

4. Teachers that use education methods to provide students with information on living organisms including animals, plants and humans.

5. A field of biology that develops methods and software tools for understanding biological data

7. A scientist who studies microscopic life forms and processes.

8. A person who treats diseased or injured animals.