

Name: _____

Biology Crossword

Across

2. A taxonomic rank between kingdom and class
4. capable of some degree of response to stimuli, reproduction, growth and development and homeostasis
7. Any difference between cells, individual organisms, or groups of organisms of any species caused either by genetic differences
8. The first big division of living things in the classification system
10. An individual belonging to a group of organisms having common characteristics.

Down

1. A distinguishing quality, trait or feature of an individual, thing, disorder
3. A biological species name consisting of two terms
5. A warm-blooded vertebrate animal of a class that is distinguished by the possession of hair or fur
6. A rank in classification below family and above species
9. The material inside the nucleus of cells, carrying the genetic information of a living being.