

Biology Crossword

Across

7. genetics in which extreme values for a trait are favored over intermediate values.
 10. preserved Remains of animals or plants
 11. the ratio of deaths to the population of a particular area or during a particular period of time
 12. Carrier of genetic information
 13. to the leaving of a place of residence or habitat with the intent of living in another place.

14. The total births over a given period of a particular species,
 15. anything that constrains a population's size and slows or stops it from growing

Down

1. the action or process of adapting or being adapted.
 2. a type of natural selection in which the population mean stabilizes on a particular non-extreme trait value.

3. species that is not native to a specific location
 4. the increase in the number of individuals in a population.
 5. mode of natural selection in which an extreme phenotype is favored over others
 6. Clearing or removing of trees
 8. The change in characteristics of species overtime
 9. organisms better adapted to their environment tend to survive and produce more offspring

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-------------------|-----------------------|-------------|-----------------------|
| population growth | Stabilizing Selection | DNA | Disruptive selection |
| Fossils | Invasive Species | adaptations | emigration |
| Limiting Factors | Deforestation | Birthrate | Directional Selection |
| Natural Selection | Evolution | Deathrate | |