

Biology - Health

Across

- 2. an illness which affects a person, animal, or plant
- 3. a disease that affects a particular part of your body and is caused by bacteria or a virus
- 6. A very small living thing which causes infectious diseases
- 10. used to protect a person or animal from a disease

11. the natural ability of a person, animal, or plant to stop diseases or difficult conditions from harming them

12. the smallest part of a living thing which can live independently

Down

- 1. a piece of paper on which a doctor writes what medicine a sick person should have, so that they can get it from a pharmacist
- 4. Affect more people/places

5. the system by which your body protects itself against disease

7. Something wrong with your body or mind which shows that you have a particular illness

8. very small little things, some of which can cause illness or disease

9. the central part of an atom, made up of neutrons, protons, and other elementary particles